Eligibility Requirements for Appointment to a Recount Committee

- A person must be a qualified voter of the political subdivision served by the Recount Supervisor and must otherwise meet the eligibility requirements prescribed by the Texas Election Code for precinct election judges and clerks.
- A person who is appointed as a member of a Recount Committee by the Secretary of State or a State Party Chair and who otherwise meets the eligibility requirements prescribed by the Texas Election Code for precinct election judges and clerks is eligible for appointment regardless of whether the person is a qualified voter of the political subdivision served by the Recount Supervisor.
- Any person from this list, who is willing to accept the appointment, may be appointed by the Recount Supervisor to serve as the Recount Chair.

Ineligibility to Serve on a Recount Committee

- A person who served as a Presiding Judge or Alternate Judge of an Election Day polling place or a person who served as a Presiding Judge or Alternate Judge of the Early Voting Ballot Board is not eligible for appointment to a Recount Committee. This prohibition does not apply to election workers that served during Early Voting.
